Validity Period and Termination

The contract is concluded with the payment of the first membership fee and with the signed declaration of consent. Your membership is effective from the date you paid for it until canceled. The contract has a term of 24 months and is automatically renewed every 12 months if the contract is not terminated three months before the end of the 24 months. The membership start date corresponds to the first payment date of the subscription. Cancellation is not possible during the first 24 months of the contract. The notice period for each additional year after the end of the 24-month period is 3 months until the end of a payment cycle. A payment cycle is the date when one payment is made to the date when the next payment is due. Example: If a member pays a subscription on 12th May 2023, the cycle runs until 11th May 2024 and then the next payment would be due. Termination of the online subscription payment plan by the artist automatically terminates the contract on the next possible termination date, but does not relieve the member of their payment obligations. Outstanding payments must be settled immediately following the cancellation of the subscription plan by the member. If the membership fee is not paid or is paid late, the gallery reserves the right to terminate the membership without notice and to demand repayment of the services already provided.
